

All Network Meeting March 5, 2024

Guests

Kimberly Nabarro

Kim's a mom who navigated addiction, adult probation, domestic violence, homelessness, and the Child Welfare system. Kim is a Certified Peer Support Specialist (PSS) by the Hawai'i State Department of Health.

She completed a Human Services AA degree program and Certificate of Completion for Substance Abuse Counseling. Kim works as a Parent Partner at EPIC 'Ohana, and serves moms with addiction issues in the Makua Allies program.

In addition to her direct service work, Kim is very actively engaged in advocacy efforts at the local, state, and national levels. She serves locally within an Indigenous focused community-based network, Nā Kama a Hāloa and as a member of Family First Hawaii Lived Experience Advisory Group. Kim is a Parent Leader for Safe Babies, a program of ZERO TO THREE, to bring parent voice and support informed practice and policy change for young children and families at the national level. Kim is also a member of the Casey Family Program Birth Parent Advisory Committee and provides her guidance and support to its important consulting work.

www.zerotothree.org/team/kimberly-nabarro

Ashley Viluan

Ashley was born & raised on the island of O'ahu and works as a Parent Partner (Peer Support Specialist) at EPIC 'Ohana. She also earned certification by the State of Hawai'i Department of Health Adult Mental Health Division as a Hawai'i Certified Peer Specialist (HCPS) & Forensic Peer Specialist (FPS). Ashley has navigated multiple systems and circumstances ranging in perinatal substance use disorder (PSUD), long-term addiction, incarceration, domestic violence, and navigating the child welfare system.

Ashley was one of the first recipients of the Makua Allies Program and is now able to serve others in the capacity that has supported her to reach her goals. Her experience working in this field has brought her great joy, especially when she witnesses the moment others also realize they can do it too.

EPIC 'Ohana, www.epicohana.org

Anne-marie Cline

Anne-marie is a licensed clinical social worker with a passion for nurturing relationships, advocating for social justice and supporting communities to thrive and cherish their keiki. Anne-marie has been working in the field of social work for over 10 years and continues her work with the Association of Infant Mental Health Hawaii (AIMH-HI). When she is not working, she enjoys caring for her two cats and three fish, along with spending quality time with her loved ones and trying every brunch spot in town.

AIMH-HI, anne-marie@aimhhi.org

Marty Oliphant

Marty Oliphant is the Executive Director, Lydia House at Lili'uokalani Trust. He has over thirty years of working in the social services field (community-based and government organizations). He has worked in both prevention and intervention programs that support the wellbeing of children/youth and their family. In addition, he enjoys serving on boards and committees (local and national) that support the promote healthy development of children and youth.

Lili'uokalani Trust, www.onipaa.org

Kanoe Enos

Kanoe brings over 10 years of experience as a social worker to create a better life for residents of Hawai'i. Growing up at the Cultural Learning Center at Ka'ala Farms in Wai'anae Moku, O'ahu has helped Kanoe bring a culturally grounded approach to his many roles as a case manager, youth development worker, collective impact convener, and educator. Kanoe is rooted in place and is a tireless advocate for the natural resources, peoples and cultures that make Hawai'i special. Kanoe's gifts include the ability to take cultural and community knowledge and weave it into tools and strategies that are effective, efficient, and pono. Kanoe has a degree in Hawaiian Studies from the University of Hawaii at Mānoa, a Master's Degree in Social Work, and currently teaches social work in the University of Hawai'i system. Kanoe serves on numerous boards, community groups, and collective impact initiatives.

A'ali'i Alliance, www.aaliialliance.com